Escaped Sonoma State Home Youth Found Here

A taste for milk and pie last night led to the apprehension of a 16-year-old escaped inmate of the Sonoma State Home at Eldridge by Napa police officers, who are holding him here until authorities arrive to take him into custody today.

The youth was discovered by Mrs. Bertha Schombucher of 1757 Pine street, sitting in her car in front of her home. She asked him if he was hungry, and receiving an affirmative answer produced the pie and milk while she notified local authorities. In checking with the Sonoma State Home, Napa police learned that the youth was one of three who escaped yesterday.
